My dear Sir,

I am now desired to address you in the matter of the emoluments to be allowed to Mr.V.V.Karve during the period of his deputation to Delhi in connection with the arrangements made for the visit there in December last year. As Superintendent of Fernhill Palace &c he is entitled to draw his salary at Rs.250/- p.m. made up of Rs.150/- Pay + Rs.100/- Hill Allowance. During the period of deputation, Mr.Karve's permanent rank in the P.W.D. was Sub-Assistant Engineer, First Class, pay Rs.150/-. Owing to the Deputation to Delhi, Mr.Karve forfeited his claim to the Hill Allowance of Rs.100/- p.m. for the period in question. Ordinarily, he would be entitled to claim halting allowance for the period of stay at Delhi at Rs.3/- p.d. But taking into consideration the long period (from June 1911 to February 1912 - eight months) that he had to halt there, the expensive living of the place and the other exceptional circumstances of the occasion, His Highness has been pleased to approve of his being granted a deputation, or local, allowance of Rs.150/- per mensem in lieu of the halting allowance due under the Rules. May I therefore request the favour of the issue of early orders in the matter accordingly? As regards Dr.Krishnaswamier and Mr.M.Runga Rao, they have, both of them, submitted the usual T/A bills.

Yours sincerely,

P Raghavendra

circumstances of the case I concur in the order.

6 I must point out however that there is a possible misapprehension of the rules in Hyam Secy's Do. of 16.4.1912 on which the order is based. The Do. says "Ordinarily he (Mr. Karve) would be entitled to claim halting allee for the period of stay at Delhi at Rs 3 p.d." If Mr Karve was given free food, free accommodation free carriage &c during the period in question, he cannot claim halting allee & therefore no deputation allowance in lieu of such halting allee would be admissible.

7 But as in fairness an officers emoluments should not be reduced during deputation an allee of Rs 100/- would be reasonable in this case. The extra Rs 50/- appears uncalled for under the circumstances specially as a separate bonus of Rs 900/- has been sanctioned.

8 But considering the nature of the work & the amount involved (Rs 50/- a month for a few months) we need not raise any objection.
